Kenſington, October 2.

THIS Day the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of London, attended by the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and Clergy of the City and Dioceſe of London, waited on his Majeſty with the following Addreſs.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter and Clergy of the City and Dioceſe of London.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of London, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and Clergy of the City and Dioceſe of London, remember, with great Pleaſure, the late Zeal and Unanimity of your Majeſty's Subjects, in expreſſing their Reſentment and Indignation even at the Preparations that were making by a neighbouring Power, in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender. And after ſuch late and publick Teſtimonies of the Duty and Loyalty of your Subjects, it might well be wonder'd, not only that the like Preparations ſhould be renewed ſo ſoon, but carried further into an actual Invaſion; as if they ſtill flattered themſelves with the Hopes of a favourable Reception here. But our Wonder ceaſes, when we reflect upon the reſtleſs ſpirit of Popery, which never neglects the leaſt Proſpect of enlarging its Borders; and upon the Pleaſure which arbitrary Powers naturally take, in deſtroying the Liberties of a Free Nation; and the Readineſs of People of deſperate Fortunes to embark with them in any Enterprize that gives them the leaſt Hope of bettering their Condition.

What the Strength is, that they reſt upon from Foreign Forces and Aids, is beſt known to themſelves; but ſurely it would be the vaineſt Imagination that could enter into the Mind of Man, to ſuppoſe, that a Nation, who find themſelves in ſecure Poſſeſſion of their Religion, Laws and Liberties, under your Majeſty's moſt mild, juſt and auſpicious Government, ſhould be diſpoſed to receive a Popiſh Pretender to your Throne; who has from his Infancy been bred and trained up amidſt the higheſt Notions and Maxims of Superſtition and arbitrary Government; and whoſe Succeſs, which God avert, carries in it ſuch a frightful Scene of Calamities to the Souls, Bodies and Eſtates of a Proteſtant and Free People.

Upon ſo important an Occaſion, we ſhould be greatly wanting to our Duty, if we did not make the moſt open and publick Profeſſion of our inviolable Fidelity to your Perſon and Government, and of the firmeſt Reſolution to defend and ſupport both to the utmoſt of our Power, againſt this and all other Attempts, from what Quarter ſoever they come.

And for the more effectual preventing and defeating all ſuch wicked Enterprizes, we take this Opportunity to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will inſtill into the People committed to our Care, a juſt Abhorrence of Popery and the Doctrines of it, and excite them to a ſerious Reflection upon the Dangers and Difficulties in which theſe Nations were involv'd within the Memory of Man, by the illegal and violent Proceedings of a Popiſh Prince, for the overturning our Religion, and the eſtabliſhing his own. We will alſo uſe our beſt Endeavours to make them truly ſenſible of the particular Obligation they are under at this Time, to exert themſelves in their ſeveral Stations, to prevent our falling again into the like National Dangers and Diſtractions. And that they may be effectually armed againſt all the Arts and Deluſions of the Enemy; it ſhall be our particular Care to fix and eſtabliſh them in this great and fundamental Truth; That, under God, there is no Safety for the Religion and Liberties of this Country, but but in the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as ſettled by Law, in your Majeſty, and your Royal Family.

To which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for this ſeaſonable Mark of your Duty and Affection. Your Influence and Example will greatly tend to animate my People with a due Zeal for the Support of my Government, and for the Defence of our moſt Holy Religion. You may be aſſured of my conſtant Reſolution to protect and maintain the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſhed.

The following Addreſs of the Governor, Council and Repreſentatives of the Province of the Maſſachuſetts Bay in New England, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, Council and Repreſentatives of the Province of the Maſſachuſetts Bay in New England.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Governor, Council and Repreſentatives of the Province of the Maſſachuſetts Bay in New England, in General Court aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty, upon the Reduction of the Iſland of Cape Breton, with its Dependencies, to the Obedience of your Majeſty's Crown; and to expreſs the deep Senſe we have of our Obligations to your Majeſty, for the timely Aſſiſtance of your Majeſty's Ships of War, which you was moſt graciouſly pleaſed to order for the Support of your Troops raiſed in this and two of the neighbouring Colonies, for your Majeſty's Service in the late Expedition againſt thoſe Settlements.

It is with the higheſt Pleaſure that we reflect upon the Share which your Majeſty's Subjects of this Province have had in making this Acquiſition, as it has afforded them an Opportunity of diſtinguiſhing their unalterable Duty and Attachment to your ſacred Perſon, their Zeal for the Honour of your Majeſty's Government, and their Diſpoſition to promote the general Welfare of your Dominions; an Acquiſition which, as we eſteem it in its immediate Effects to be of very great Importance to the Intereſt of your Majeſty's European as well as American Subjects, ſo we truſt it will prove ſtill more beneficial to them in its future Conſequences: And we hope the Remembrance of it will be tranſmitted to ſucceeding Generations within your American Colonies, that it may excite and preſerve in them the ſame Spirit of Loyalty, which animated us in our late Enterprize for your Majeſty's Service.

May the Divine Providence, which has moſt remarkably favour'd your Majeſty's Arms in this Conqueſt, continue to crown them with Succeſs, till your Majeſty ſhall have eſtabliſhed the Liberties of Europe and America, by a ſafe and honourable Peace; and may this Acquiſition be an Earneſt of larger Additions to your Majeſty's Dominions.

William Shirley, Governor.
In the Name and by Order of the Council,
Joſiah Willand, Secretary.

Boſton, July 30, 1745.

In the Name and by Order of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,
Thomas Cuſhing, Speaker.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, having been tranſmitted by the Earl of Derby, Lord Lieutenant of the County, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, aſſembled at the Borough of Preſton, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty's ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions.

As your Majeſty's Preſence Abroad has been found powerful and effectual in diſconcerting the dangerous Schemes of an ambitious Monarch, the open and avowed Enemy of theſe Kingdoms, and raiſing the Grand Duke of Tuſcany to the Imperial Throne; ſo we doubt not but it will be as powerful and effectual at Home, in defeating the traiterous Attempts of your and the Nation's Enemies, and give new Strength and double Vigour to your faithful Subjects.

The unnatural Rebellion at this Time raiſed in Scotland, (which from a Spark is now become a Flame threatening Deſtruction as far as it ſhall extend) cannot but fill our Hearts with a juſt Horror and Reſentment, and inſpire us with Unanimity and Reſolution to exert all the Means in our Power, for the Defence and Security curity of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Houſe, on which, (under God) all that is or can be dear to Engliſhmen, our Religion, Laws and Liberty depend.

That your Majeſty may long reign for the Preſervation of theſe invaluable Bleſſings, (the nobleſt End of all Government, and which your Majeſty has ever been ambitious to make the Glory and Meaſure of your own) to the Happineſs of your People, is the ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Honiton, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir William Yonge, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Honiton, beg Leave to expreſs our ſincereſt Joy on your Majeſty's ſafe and happy Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions.

When we conſider your Majeſty's Goodneſs and unwearied Endeavours to maintain the Liberties of Europe in general, and the true Intereſt of all your Subjects in particular, we think it our indiſpenſible Duty to acknowledge, with the greateſt Gratitude and Veneration, your Majeſty's juſt Regard and tender Concern for their Happineſs: And we cannot omit (on this Occaſion) congratulating your Majeſty on your important Conqueſt of Cape Breton; an Acquiſition of the greateſt Conſequence to theſe Kingdoms, as the Security and Welfare of the Trade to your Northern Colonies greatly depend thereon.

We reflect with the higheſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence, on the malicious Attempts of your Majeſty's moſt inveterate Enemies, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to your Crown and Dignity; and beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready (at the Hazard of every Thing that is valuable to us) to defend your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and illuſtrious Family, and to ſupport your prudent and equitable Government, from which only we can promiſe ourſelves the Continuance of our Religious and Civil Liberties, and the Preſervation of our happy Conſtitution.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, capital Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants of the Town and Pariſh of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir William Yonge, Bart. their Recorder, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and Aſſiſtants of the Town and Pariſh of Tiverton in the County of Devon, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave to join with the reſt of your loyal Subjects, in congratulating your Majeſty on your ſafe Return into theſe your Dominions; and alſo on the happy Succeſs of your Arms at Cape Breton; an Acquiſition of vaſt Importance to your Majeſty's Trading Subjects.

Whilſt your Enemies, equally regardleſs of their own Engagements, their People's Intereſts, and their Neighbours Rights, are endeavouring to extend the Borders of Tyranny, and to ſcatter Deſolation through the World; your Majeſty's Councils and Arms are employ'd in ſecuring and enlarging the Trade and Happineſs of your Subjects, and in defending the Liberties of Europe, and the Rights of Mankind. The wicked Attempt to impoſe a popiſh Pretender on Great Britain will, we truſt, by the Aſſiſtance of a good Providence, prove vain and abortive, like former Attempts of the ſame Kind, and like the late Endeavour to prevent an Emperor in Germany: It is an Experiment which we hope will only ſerve to ſhow the Malignity of your Majeſty's Enemies, the Temerity of the young Adventurer, and the Loyalty and Fidelity of your Britiſh Subjects.

Our Fathers have told us of the dire and fatal Effects of Popery and arbitrary Power in their Days, which coſt them ſo much Pains and Blood to extirpate: We have enjoy'd the happy Fruits of their Labours, under your Majeſty's wiſe and gentle Adminiſtration. As the ſame Calamities again threaten us and ours, we doubt not but the ſame true Britiſh Spirit will revive and exert itſelf, and will animate and engage us, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, to defend our Religion, Laws, Liberties, and Properties, which are ſo inſeparably connected with your Majeſty's Perſon, Government, and Family, as we are fully ſenſible they muſt ſtand and fall together.

May the Event of this Enterprize give your Majeſty an Opportunity of knowing your Friends, of Triumphing over your Enemies, and of convincing the World, that 'tis much more ſafe and glorious to reign over a brave and a free free People, than to command a World of Slaves.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, having been tranſmitted by John Talke, Eſq; their Recorder, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Majeſty's Britiſh Dominions, and on the important Conqueſt of Cape Breton.

When we reflect that our Religion, Liberties, and every Thing that is dear and valuable unto us, as Engliſhmen and Proteſtants, depend on the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion of your Royal Houſe to the Crown of theſe Realms; we ſhould be guilty of the higheſt Folly as well as Ingratitude, not to be particularly anxious for the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon, when an unnatural Rebellion is actually broke out in theſe your Majeſty's Dominions.

From that ſincere and unſhaken Loyalty and Fidelity, which we feel in our own Breaſts for your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, we truſt in God, that it will not be in the Power of your Majeſty's Enemies to make any Impreſſion on your Subjects in theſe Parts of your Majeſty's Dominions; but at the ſame Time we cannot help looking upon the Landing the Pretender's Son in Scotland, as ſuch an Affront and Indignity offer'd to your Majeſty, as calls for our higheſt Reſentment: And we aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall be ready, upon this and all other Occaſions, to ſupport and maintain your Majeſty in your lawful and rightful Title to theſe your Majeſty's Dominions, even at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

Dated at Sarum, under our Common Seal, the 26th Day of September 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Citizens of the City of Cheſter, having been tranſmitted by Sir Robert Groſvenor, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Citizens of the City of Cheſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions, and on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Reduction of Cape Breton, a Place of ſo great Importance and Advantage to the Trade of theſe Kingdoms.

Permit us, Great Sir, to join with the reſt of your loyal Subjects, in teſtifying our greateſt Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion raiſed and fomented againſt your Majeſty. The Bleſſings the Subjects of theſe Kingdoms have enjoyed ever ſince their Deliverance from Popery and arbitrary Power, by the happy Revolution, are ſo many and great, as render it aſtoniſhing to think, that any of thoſe Subjects ſhould be ſo audacious and infatuated, ſo inſenſible of their own true and real Intereſt, as to endeavour to diſturb the Tranquillity of your Majeſty's Government, on the Preſervation whereof every Thing that is dear and valuable to us, as a free People, entirely depends.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, in the moſt ſolemn Manner, That we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, defend your Majeſty's juſt and undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Realms, againſt all your Enemies, and maintain the Succeſſion thereto, as it ſtands eſtabliſhed by Law; and we heartily pray, that there may never be wanting one of your Royal Line to fill the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal the 27th of September 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Freemen and Inhabitants of the King's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone in Kent, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Romney, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which

Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freemen and Inhabitants of the King's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone in Kent.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Freemen and Inhabitants of the King's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone in Kent, approach you to congratulate your ſafe and happy Arrival in theſe Kingdoms, which will ſoon, we doubt not, reduce to due Subjection and Obedience ſuch diſloyal and traiterous Perſons, as may have taken Encouragement to diſturb your Government during your Majeſty's Abſence from your Britiſh Dominions.

And as this wicked Rebellion carrying on at Home, will probably encourage our natural Enemy the French to attack us from Abroad; ſo we gladly take the preſent Occaſion of aſſuring your Majeſty, that every Attempt of our Enemies to invade us, ſhall find us determined to decline no Danger in the Diſcharge of that Duty we which owe to your Majeſty, ourſelves, and our Poſterity.

We enjoy beyond any other Nation the Bleſſing of being a Free People; and it will ever be the unalterable Reſolution of our Minds, at the Hazard of all that is dear to us, to oppoſe every Attempt that ſhall at any Time be made againſt the Religion, Liberties, and Conſtitution of our Country.

We congratulate your Majeſty upon the Succeſs of your Arms in the Reduction of Cape Breton, an Acquiſition of the utmoſt Importance and Advantage to the Trade and Navigation of this Nation, the Benefits whereof we truſt will be tranſmitted to our lateſt Poſterity.

Done at the Town Hall in Maidſtone, Kent, the 25th of September 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Steward, Capital Burgeſſes, Burgeſſes, and other the Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Harwich in the County of Eſſex, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Phillipſon, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Steward, Capital Burgeſſes, Burgeſſes, and other the Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Harwich in the County of Eſſex.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST that univerſal Gladneſs which at this Time fills the Hearts of all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, on your Majeſty's ſafe Return to your Dominions of Great Britain, we of this Corporation ſhould be wanting in our Duty to your Majeſty, ſhould we not join with our Fellow Subjects, in expreſſing our Joy on that moſt happy Occaſion: With Hearts therefore full of Affection, we beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, to congratulate your Majeſty, on that Inſtance of the Divine Protection, ſo great a Bleſſing to the Britiſh Nation.

And it would be a Crime againſt Royal Majeſty, at this Juncture, not to give ſome Teſtimonies of our Zeal for your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, under whoſe moſt auſpicious Government we enjoy all the Liberties and Bleſſings of a free and happy People: We therefore moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, upon all Occaſions, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, and of all that is dear to us, ſtand by and aſſiſt your Majeſty in the Support and Maintenance of the Imperial Crown of this Realm, in your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, againſt all the traiterous Conſpiracies and Attempts of your Enemies to ſubvert it.

And we moſt ardently pray the Almighty, that he would bleſs your Majeſty's Arms with the happieſt Succeſs, and grant unto your Majeſty Health, long Life, and Pleaſure, and be for ever propitious to your Royal Family.

Given under our Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the 24th Day of September 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe in the County of Bucks, has been preſented to his Majeſty by ——— Waller, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, with loyal and unfeigned Hearts moſt humbly congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions.

The many and great Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild, juſt, and prudent Adminiſtration, cannot but excite in us the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the daring and inſolent Attemps that are now carrying on in Favour of a popiſh Pretender.

We therefore take this Occaſion to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your ſacred Perſon and Government; and that we ſhall always, with the utmoſt Alacrity and Chearfulneſs, be ready to ſacrifice all that is dear and valuable to us, in Support of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, and our happy Conſtitution both in Church and State.

That your Majeſty, after all your unwearied Endeavours for the Welfare of theſe Kingdoms, may enjoy a long and proſperous Reign over us, a free and happy People, are the ſincere and hearty Prayers, and ſhall be the conſtant Endeavours of your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation, the 27th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater, having been tranſmitted by the Right Honourable the Earl Powlet, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO permit your moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Bridgwater, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to theſe your Britiſh Dominions; and to join in the general Joy for that enlivening Proſpect, that is opened to the Trade of theſe Nations, by the glorious Succeſs that has attended your Majeſty's Arms in the Conqueſt of Cape Breton.

Permit us alſo, Great Sir, when our moſt ſacred Religion and invaluable Liberties are now endangered, by an execrable Attempt made by the Common Foe and Diſturber of Europe, to impoſe a popiſh Pretender and arbitrary Government upon us, Names! that will always be had in the greateſt Abhorrence by every ſincere Proteſtant and true Engliſhman, to repeat our moſt ſolemn Aſſurances of our unalterable Attachment to our moſt excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State; of our ſteadfaſt Loyalty and inviolable Fidelity to your Royal Perſon, Family and Government, and of our determined Reſolution, to the utmoſt of our Power and Abilities, of ſupporting and defending your Majeſty on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, againſt all Pretenders and Oppoſers whatſoever.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln, having been tranſmitted by John Noel, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Stamford in the County of Lincoln.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO permit us to renew the unfeigned Aſſurances of the Loyalty and Allegiance of your moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, and Capital Burgeſſes of your Borough of Stamford, who join the general Voice of a free and grateful People, in the moſt hearty Congratulations upon your Majeſty's ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions, and upon the Succeſs which has happily attended your Majeſty's wiſe Endeavours to ſettle the Imperial Dignity in the Grand Duke of Tuſcany; an Event ſo deſtructive of the ambitious Deſigns of our Enemies, (the known Diſturbers of Europe) and ſo advantageous to the common Cauſe.

Our inviolable Duty and Attachment to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, will never fail of creating in us the ſtrongeſt Reſolutions to exert ourſelves in the Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon, and undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Realms, upon all Occaſions, and particularly upon the preſent deteſtable Invaſion, and unnatural Rebellion in Scotland.

As we are fully convinced, by long Experience, ence, that a popiſh Prince is inconſiſtent with the Religion and Liberty of a Proteſtant Nation; ſo we ſhall always look upon all Attempts to introduce again ſo great a Miſchief into theſe Kingdoms, as proceeding from Perſons who have neither Reverence for God, nor Affection for Mankind. And as we are fully convinced by equal Experience of the Safety of both theſe invaluable Bleſſings, under your Majeſty's Government; ſo the Preſervation of your moſt ſacred Perſon, and the Continuance of the Crown in your illuſtrious Family, ſhall be equally our Care, as the Maintenance of our own Rights.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Town Hall of the ſaid Borough, the 25th Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs and Aſſociation of the Nobility, Deputy Lieutenants, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Nottingham, have been preſented to his Majeſty by John Mordaunt and William Levinz, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, Lord Lieutenant of the County, and one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Addreſs and Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Deputy Lieutenants, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Nottingham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE Happineſs we have conſtantly enjoyed under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, lays us under the higheſt Obligations, at all Times, to exert ourſelves in Support of your Majeſty's Crown and Dignity, and particularly at this Conjuncture, when we ſee your Royal Perſon inſulted, and the Peace of theſe Kingdoms diſturbed by an unnatural Rebellion in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, who, with the Aſſiſtance of our hereditary and implacable Enemies, vainly hopes, in Defiance of our Laws, to uſurp a Dominion over a free People.

Permit us, therefore, to aſſure your Majeſty of our utter Abhorrence of ſo wicked and deteſtable Attempt, and of our zealous Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, for whoſe immediate Defence we have with one Conſent entered into a ſolemn Aſſociation, which we beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty with this our humble Addreſs, not doubting, but that your Majeſty's Wiſdom, and the Prudence of Parliament, will, in a ſhort Time, provide more effectual and durable Methods to ſecure theſe Kingdoms againſt all Inſults from foreign Enemies, or domeſtick Traytors; ſo that at all Times hereafter, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects may be found in Readineſs to defend your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and that by the Duty and Affection of a grateful People, the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms may be tranſmitted to your lateſt Poſterity; which are the hearty Prayers of moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects,

An Aſſociation of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Nottingham.

WHereas there is now a horrid and an unnatural Rebellion formed and carried on by Papiſts and other wicked and traiterous Perſons, countenanced and ſupported by the ancient and implacable Enemies of our Country, with Intent to dethrone his Majeſty King George, to ſubvert vert our Religion and Liberty, and to place the Crown of Great Britain on the Head of a popiſh Pretender, who muſt for his own Safety be dependant on France and Rome; We whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, being fully convinced that an Union of Hearts and Forces will greatly conduce to his Majeſty's Safety and the Protection of our Country, do voluntarily and firmly bind ourſelves, every one of us the one to the other, jointly and ſeverally, in the Bond of one loyal Society, and do hereby ſolemnly promiſe, that with our Bodies, Lives and Eſtates, we and every of us will ſtand by and aſſiſt each other in the Support and Defence of his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, and will, as well with Force of Arms, as by all other lawful Means, withſtand the ſaid popiſh Pretender and Traytors, and all Manner of Perſons and their Abettors, who ſhall attempt, act, council or conſent to any Thing that ſhall tend to the Harm of his Majeſty King George, or any of his Royal Family. All which we will faithfully perform, according to the plain Senſe and Meaning of the above-written Inſtrument, as we hope for Favour from Almighty God, and Eſteem amongſt good Men.

Kenſington, October 3.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters, in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, was preſented to the King by the Reverend Mr. Joſeph Stennett, attended by ſeveral of his Brethren; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters, in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, with great Thankfulneſs to God, and affectionate Congratulations to your Majeſty, on your ſafe and happy Return to your Britiſh Dominions, on the Proſperity of your Arms in North America, and on the Succeſs of your zealous and prudent Endeavours to reſtore the Balance of Power in Europe to its ancient and natural Situation.

As the religious and civil Liberties, the Happineſs and Honour of the Nation, have been always your Majeſty's unwearied Care, we cannot but deteſt and abhor the preſent unnatural and rebellious Attempt to impoſe on theſe Kingdoms a Popiſh and Abjured Pretender. We truſt in God, that ſo wicked and deſperate an Enterprize will iſſue in the ſpeedy and utter Overthrow of theſe infatuated Traytors, and the ſtill firmer Eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Throne, and the Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Family, on which, under Divine Providence, the Enjoyment of all that is dear to us depends.

Nothing, Sir, we are perſuaded, within the Power of the Proteſtant Diſſenters, will be wanting to defend and ſecure your Majeſty's juſt and undoubted Right to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms; the Weight of which you have have always ſupported with ſo much Dignity to yourſelf, and Happineſs to your People.

We ſhall never ceaſe to offer our moſt fervent Prayers to the great Sovereign of Heaven and Earth, for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's invaluable Life, the Tranquillity and Glory of your Reign, and the Conveyance of our Liberties, under the Protection of your Royal Houſe, to the End of Time.

To which his Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for this Loyal Addreſs, and have a firm Dependance upon your ſteady Attachment to my Perſon and Government. You may be aſſured of the Continuance of my Protection.

They were received very graciouſly, and had all the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand.

The following Aſſociation of the Mayor, Lord Biſhop, Aldermen and Magiſtrates, Dignitaries of the Cathedral, and other the Clergy, Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Exon, having been tranſmitted by Francis Brayne, Eſq; Mayor of Exeter, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE the Mayor, Lord Biſhop, Aldermen, and Magiſtrates, Dignitaries of the Cathedral, and other the Clergy, Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Exon, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the following Aſſociation, as our bounden Duty and Affection to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and happy Government in Church and State.

At the Guildhall of the City of Exon, the firſt Day of October, 1745.

WE the Mayor, Lord Biſhop, Aldermen, and Magiſtrates, Dignitaries of the Cathedral, and other the Clergy, Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the City and County of the ſaid City, being truly ſenſible of the great Bleſſings we enjoy under the auſpicious Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and having the utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the preſent wicked and moſt unnatural Rebellion, begun in Scotland, and threatned to be back'd by an Invaſion from abroad, by the ancient and inveterate Enemies of our civil and religious Rights, in Favour of a popiſh abjured Pretender, educated in the Religion and Politicks of a French and Romiſh Court and Church, do hereby, in this critical and dangerous Juncture, when all that is dear to us, either as Engliſhmen, or Proteſtants, is at Stake, moſt ſolemnly, heartily, and ſincerely aſſociate, unite and bind ourſelves jointly and to each other, and declare, that we will, at all Times, to the utmoſt of our ſeveral Powers, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, ſtand by, ſupport, and defend, his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in his Majeſty's Family, againſt the preſent, or any future Attempts which may be made againſt it by foreign or domeſtick Enemies; and that we will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours, without Fear, Favour, or Regard to any Perſons whomſoever, to diſcover, and bring to their deſerved Puniſhment, all, if ſuch there ſhould be amongſt us (which God forbid) who ſhall either openly or ſecretly carry on, encourage or abett, any Practices or Deſigns deſtructive to our preſent moſt happy Eſtabliſhment under his Majeſty King George.

And we mutually promiſe and engage to each other, That we will readily, at all Times, meet together, and enter into ſuch proper and vigorous Meaſures, perſonally, or at our Expence, for the carrying theſe our Reſolutions into Execution, as ſhall evidence to all the World, that our Hearts accompany our Words in this Aſſociation; and that we are all equally affected with our preſent common Danger, and firmly determined to act on this important Occaſion, as becomes his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Hague, October 10.

The following Account has been juſt received here from Berlin by the Pruſſian Miniſter.

On the 30th of laſt Month, the Auſtrian and Saxon Army in Bohemia having made a forced March all Night, in order to ſurprize the King, and to attack his Majeſty in his Camp of Staudentz near Prouchez, the King put his Army in Order of Battle, and at Day-break, altho' inferior to the Allies by the great Detachments he had made, after a moſt obſtinate Battle, he obtain'd a compleat Victory, and totally defeated the Enemy's whole Army, which left between 3 and 4000 Men dead and wounded upon the Field of Battle, and at leaſt as many Priſoners; they loſt beſides all their Artillery, and a great Number of Standards, &c. The Allied Army retired in great Confuſion to Arnau, and at the Departure of the Courier, the Pruſſians were in Purſuit of them. On our Side the Loſs was very inconſiderable; but Prince Albert of Brunſwick, the Queen's Brother, and the Sieur Wedel, Major of the King's Guards, were killed; Major General Blanckenſee, Major General Count Schmettau, Colonel Forcade, and Lieutenant Colonel Voilke, wounded. The Enemy's Irregular Troops found an Opportunity during the Battle, to pillage the King's Baggage, and to carry off his Majeſty's private Secretary.

Hague, October 10. All the laſt Letters from Italy bring an Account, that the Spaniards croſs'd the Po near Pavia on the 20th paſt, and ſome even add, were enter'd into the Town of Milan. Count Stahremberg is arrived here in his Way to England, whither he is going with the Emperor's Notification of his Election and Coronation. The Britiſh Troops which compoſed the Garriſon at Oſtend, and have been for ſome Time at Mons, are arrived at the Army, having been as we hear attack'd upon the Road by a French Detachment, which was repulſed with the Loſs of ſeveral Men kill'd on the Part of the Enemy, and four Officers taken Priſoners. The Battalion of Engliſh Guards was upon its March for Willemſtadt, to be embarked there for England.

Whitehall, October 5.

By Letters of the 30th paſt from Berwick, the Rebels had not then moved from Edinburgh. The Officers they had taken Priſoners in the late Action near Tranent, were, on the 29th in the Morning, ſent to Perth; and they were to paſs the Forth four Miles above Stirling, at the ſame Place where the Rebels had croſſed that River in their March Southward; the private Men, who were Priſoners, had been ſent by the ſame Route the Day before, and the wounded remained in the Infirmary at Edinburgh.

We are likewiſe aſſured, by Letters of the 29th of September, at Noon, from the Caſtle of Edinburgh, that the Communication betwixt the Town and Caſtle had been till then ſtill open; but the Letters of the 30th from Edinburgh, ſay, that in the Night before, the Rebels had taken Poſſeſſion of all the Avenues leading to the Caſtle, in order to block it up.

London, Sept. 14, 1745.

John Earl of Stair, &c. Field Marſhal and Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's Forces in South Britain, does hereby declare, that it is his Majeſty's Intention, that any Man, who ſhall voluntarily engage in his Majeſty's Service, in any of his Regiments of Horſe, Foot, or Dragoons, ſhall be diſcharged from the Service at the End of two Years, to be reckoned from the Day of his Liſting; and that this Declaration ſhall extend to all ſuch as ſhall engage between the Day of the Date hereof, till the firſt Day of January next to come.

General Poſt-Office, Auguſt 24, 1745.

Whereas the Communication with Flanders, by the Way of Oſtend, is interrupted, and for the preſent at an End; Publick Notice is hereby given to all Merchants and others whom it may concern, That as their Letters for the ſeveral Parts and Provinces of the Auſtrian Netherlands are now, of Neceſſity, to be forwarded by the Way of Holland, it will be moſt proper for them to incloſe their Letters and Packets, or recommend them to ſuch as may be their Friends or Correſpondents in Holland, from thence to be forwarded to the Places they are deſigned for in the Netherlands aforeſaid; as alſo that it will be moſt ſafe and convenient for them, that the Anſwers, in Return to their ſaid Letters, ſhould be ſent under Cover to Holland, to be forwarded from thence to this Office.

But in regard to the Correſpondence with the Army, all Perſons are hereby to take Notice, That their Letters, directed for any Perſon or Perſons in the ſame, will be received at this Office, and from hence forwarded to the Army, in the Manner hitherto obſerved, a proper Method of conveying the Army Letters directly from hence, having been ſettled by the Way of Holland, in Conformity to the Uſages in regard thereto, during the Wars of King William and Queen Anne.

By Command of the Poſt-maſter General,
